

F. B. CATE REAL ESTATE AGENCY

The money you throw away in poor speculations would be better invested in real property which stays where it is put. You who do not own your home, figure up the amount you have spent in rent during your life. Better use paper and pencil, for it may prove to be an arithmetical problem. Now you can see for yourself what a poor investment your so-called home has been.

THIS HOUSE is a bargain. It is on John Street. Contains six rooms closets and pantry. It has a nice bath-room with hot water connections, hard wood finish, has been recently painted and shingled. A nice, large lot, 115 1/2 by 82 1/2 feet. Is insured for $1,000.00. Price only $1,500.00. Small payment down and balance as rent.

THIS SEVEN-ROOM COTTAGE is located on Humbert Street, near the Ward 5 school-house. This also has bath with hot water connection. Just as good a cellar as there is in the city, with granite underpinning. Bay window and two piazzas. Lot is 80 1/2 by 65 feet. Corner lot. This house has been built only three years. Price, $1,600.00. Small payment down. Balance at five per cent.

THE FARMS we have on our lists are too numerous to mention here. Come in and look over our description of them and see if you don't find just what you want.

We not only have houses and farms, but we have many different kinds of business to sell—granite quarries, machine-shops (doing a good business), stores, restaurant, etc. Remember the place.

Fox Typewriters!

The Recollection of Quality Remains Long After the Price is Forgotten.

Our willingness to place Fox Typewriters on free trial anywhere at all times is an evidence of our desire to have our machine submitted to the most critical tests.

Past experience with the Fox in some of the large offices using typewriters in this country, has proved our claim that the Fox will effect a saving of from 10 to 25 per cent in the work for which typewriters are employed.

We have made arrangements with C. H. Kendrick & Co., 54 North Main Street to keep in stock the Fox Typewriter there. Mr. Kendrick will exhibit to you and explain the advantages of the Fox Typewriter. Please call on them or address us in the Averill Block.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

Four drowning accidents have occurred in Little River in Waterbury, where Dame Hill lost his life Monday afternoon. Hill rescued his companion, Clara Moody, but couldn't save himself.

A petition in voluntary bankruptcy was filed Tuesday at the office of the district court clerk in Burlington by Lyman H. May, a lumberman of Vermont. Liabilities $319, assets $100, except.

Last week an expert of 33 years experience in the slate quarries of Maine examined the Vermont Black Slate Co.'s slate properties at Northfield for Massachusetts capitalists and in his report states that mill stock can be produced there at one-half the cost of the Maine quarries and of excellent quality.

Engineer Leroy S. Howe of Lyndonville has traveled 1,400,000 miles and has just completed his 40th anniversary as an engineer. He began railroad work on the Passumpsic railroad in 1861 and is still employed on that line, which is now a part of the Boston & Maine system. No one has ever been killed on any of his trains and 40 firemen have served under him.

A hearing was held before Judge H. H. Wheeler in the United States Circuit court in Brattleboro, last week, the case of Richard Pouchy of New York, against E. B. Ellis of Northfield, involving alleged contracts in regard to transfers of stock in the Bethel granite quarry. Robert J. Mahon of New York, appeared for the orator, and the defendant's counsel was Frank Plumley of Northfield and Roger Sherman and Judge Church of Chicago.

Harry Wilson, a young man who came to Randolph several weeks ago from Lowell, Mass., and has since been working for Earl H. Powers, left the latter's ranch in an unceremonious manner Sunday night and took with him a suit of clothes, two watches, a sum of money and other articles belonging to Mr. Powers and has not been seen since. The sheriff and police have been busy since in search of the culprit, but as yet their labors have been fruitless and Wilson is still at large.

Elmer Darling, one of the proprietors of the Fifth Avenue hotel in New York, is building on his farm in East Burke one of the finest summer homes in the state. It will be two years before it is completed, and the estimated cost is $100,000. It will be an old colonial mansion with 23 sleeping rooms, 11 bathrooms, 11 fireplaces, eight bathrooms and about 200,000 feet of lumber. Mr. Darling is a native of Burke, and much of the products of his fine farm of over 1,000 acres are shipped to his New York hotel.

Straight Bunco Game Played.

A straight bunco game was played last Friday on the circus grounds when Scott Marsh lost $30 at the hands of two men. The circumstances of the case were as follows: These men met Mr. Marsh and indicated to him that they would like him to take an agency for selling electric bells. Mr. Marsh came home and got $30 which he showed them as a deposit. One of the men took the money, presumably for the purpose of counting it, and then skipped out. Efforts were made to secure him, but they were unavailing. The trick was particularly despicable because Mr. Marsh is an aged man.

Collision at Pittsford.

An engine and caboose were badly smashed in a wreck which occurred on Rutland railroad near Pittsford Monday afternoon. A freight train was backing from a spur on the main line when a lone engine in charge of Engineer James Farrell, which was running special from Rutland, suddenly rounded a sharp curve. Engineer Farrell and his fireman jumped after reversing the engine, both escaping injury. The engine struck the caboose and as the freight train had not yet come to a standstill the caboose was shoved up on the engine, the rear trucks of the car resting on top of the cab. The engine was badly damaged, the cow catcher, headlight, smokestack, sand box and bell being smashed. The track was soon cleared, the damaged engine being brought to this city.

Apperious Antipathy.

Apperious, "Punch" Daley's hard-hitting outfielder, absolutely refuses to play against Matthews, the negro Burlington infielder. Apperious is a Southerner and race hatred is so instilled into his veins that he will not even attempt to defeat a team or assist in the defeat of a team on which a negro plays. Just how he would be contaminated by playing in opposition to as clean a man as Matthews does not appear to the average fair minded fan. Matthews by his own unaided efforts, has worked his way up from nothing to passing with honors at Harvard University, finding time meanwhile to play on his college baseball team and to be captain of his fitting school baseball and football team, preserving meanwhile his strict amateur status in athletics. If he was good enough for the conservative and puffed athletics of Harvard, it seems to the ordinary no-account baseball fan as if he might be good enough to be on a baseball field with the snow-white Apperious.—St. Albans Messenger.

FURNISHED $300 BAIL.

Mrs. Minnie Powers of Burlington Charged With Illegally Selling Liquor.

A case was brought against Mrs. Minnie Powers of Burlington Tuesday charging her with selling and furnishing intoxicating liquor without a license. Mrs. Powers appeared before Judge Mower in city court where her bail was fixed at $300. The amount was furnished and the case was continued. R. E. Brown and J. E. Cushman appeared as attorneys for Mrs. Powers.

The case is based on certain allegations made by the principals, who figured in the shooting of Jack Powers, husband of the respondent, their statement being that they bought liquor at the hotel kept by Mr. and Mrs. Powers at the mouth of the river the day the trouble occurred.

COMPETENT MEN.

Beauty Doctors Endorse Herpelide.

Women who make a business of beautifying other women come pretty near knowing what will bring about the best results. Here are letters from two, endorsing Herpelide.

"I can recommend Newbro's 'Herpelide' as it stopped my hair from falling out; and, as a dressing it has no superior."
(Signed.) Bertha A. Trolinger, "Complexion Specialist," 22 1/2 Morrison St., Portland, Ore.

"After using one bottle of 'Herpelide' my hair has stopped falling out, and my scalp is entirely free from dandruff."
(Signed.) Grace Dodge, "Beauty Doctor," 106 Sixth St., Portland, Ore.

GUILTY OF PETTY LARCENY.

Louis Conant, of Randolph, Pays Fine and Is Released.

Chief of Police E. S. Abbott of Randolph yesterday arrested Louis Conant, who has been working about that village for several days and in court here Conant pleaded guilty to petty larceny and was fined $10 with costs amounting to $15.51.

It is claimed that Conant broke into the house of B. A. Burke, where he has been boarding, as he says to change his clothes and go to the circus at Bethel, but different members of the family claim that small sums of money have been missed on several different occasions. This is not Conant's first offence. He was arrested about two weeks ago on a similar charge and he is said to have a bad record in the east part of the town. His fine with costs has been paid and he has been released.

Little Girl's Narrow Escape.

A little girl about 7 or 8 years old narrowly escaped being run over by the electric cars Monday on the curve at North avenue and North street in Burlington. The child started to run across the track and her foot got caught in the guard rail, throwing her violently to the ground. Alexander Miller, employed at E. E. Leclair's, seeing the child fall, ran to her assistance, calling to the motorman to stop. He untied the girl's shoe lace and picked her up, pulling the shoe out after. The girl received a good shaking up from the fall, but otherwise was uninjured, the car not touching her.

Forced to Starve.

B. F. Leek of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store. Only 25c.
